Dear Friend,

More and more every day, I’m reminded that the opportunities I have been given throughout my life are largely the product of the teachers and mentors I had growing up here in Arkansas. Because of their efforts, I had the encouragement and support I needed to reach far beyond my grasp. At the Clinton Center, we aim to inspire the world’s next generation of leaders to do the same—and I’m so grateful you’ve decided to come here and join us.

When we opened the doors of the Clinton Center in 2004, I knew that I wanted it to be a place where students and teachers from all across our state and beyond could come together to learn, listen, and take action to address some of our world’s most pressing challenges.

From exhibit tours designed for pre-K students, to a one-of-kind executive leadership program for mid-career professionals, to special lectures for students of all ages, the educational programs at the Clinton Center are designed to encourage learning across a lifetime. The Clinton Center staff and I hope you will use these resources as an extension of your classroom.

Hillary and I remain profoundly grateful for your unwavering commitment to our students, our schools, and our community, and we send our best wishes for a wonderful school year.

Sincerely,

Bill Clinton
42nd President of the United States
Founder, Clinton Foundation
Welcome to the Clinton Presidential Center.

For more than 11 years, the Clinton Center has worked with partners like you to create world-class educational programming that engages every audience, from kindergarteners to lifelong learners. Together, we have encouraged more than 310,000 school children to learn more about their country, the importance of civic engagement, the role of the Presidency, and so much more. Thank you for all you have done—and continue to do—for the Clinton Center, for our community, and most importantly, for our children.

The lessons that come from great teachers stay with us long after students leave the classroom. I still remember my teachers and often think about what I learned from them, and the experience and inspiration they provided me. And I know you are making the same impact. Every day, you are shaping young lives, opening doors, and firing the minds of our next generation of great thinkers and leaders. Your devotion is a profound investment in our shared future, and I am grateful for your service.

I hope you will continue to use the Clinton Center's educational resources; it was built specifically for you and your students. Thanks again for all that you do for our young people, and best wishes for a great school year.

Sincerely,

Bill Clinton
42nd President of the United States
Founder, Clinton Foundation

The Clinton Foundation works together with partners across the United States and around the world to create economic opportunity, improve public health, and inspire civic engagement and service.

Educational Standards

The Clinton Center’s permanent and temporary exhibits and programs provide educators and students with a multidisciplinary learning experience. You can find lesson plans based on approved educational standards, as well as professional development resources, at www.clintonfoundation.org/cpceducation.

The Clinton Presidential Center provides year-round educational and cultural opportunities that reflect President Clinton’s lifetime commitment to advancing opportunity for everybody, instilling responsibility throughout our society, and cultivating a sense of community within our great nation.
Permanent Exhibits

Biography
In this exhibit, visitors will venture through the phases of Bill and Hillary Clinton’s youth and catch a glimpse into his campaigns for Congress, Attorney General, and Governor.

The Campaign
This exhibit gives visitors a virtual ticket to the 1991-92 campaign trail where then-Governor Bill Clinton traveled the country and introduced voters to his vision for America.

Policy Alcoves
This multimedia exhibit features 14 topic-based alcoves that present the significant policy challenges facing the Clinton Administration. The alcoves are filled with historical documents, photographs, videos, and artifacts.

Timeline
This exhibit puts the Clinton Administration in historical perspective, presenting key international, domestic, and economic events.

Cabinet Room
A reconstruction of the White House Cabinet Room allows visitors to see the process of critical decision making and the organization of the White House staff and the Cabinet during the Clinton Administration.

Oval Office
A full-scale replica of the Oval Office displays the room and its furnishings as they appeared during the Clinton Administration. A class photograph inside the Oval Office will be available after the tour for an additional fee.
Life in the White House

Visitors have the opportunity to experience the Clinton White House by exploring some of the events, artifacts, and memories of the 42nd President of the United States, including collections from White House holiday celebrations, china settings from official state events, and gifts to the President from people all over the world.

The Anne Frank Tree

In 2009, the Clinton Center, in partnership with the Sisterhood of Congregation B’nai Israel, was one of 11 entities in the United States to receive a sapling taken from the actual chestnut tree outside Anne Frank’s Secret Annex where she and her family hid during World War II.

The Anne Frank Tree Installation stands as a symbol of hope, endurance, and justice on the grounds of the Clinton Center. It consists of five framed, etched glass panels – arranged to evoke the feeling of being inside a room – surrounded by complementary natural landscaping. The two front panels feature quotes from Anne Frank and President Clinton. The three additional panels will convey the complex history of human rights in Arkansas through descriptions of the Indian Removal Act of 1830, the internment of Japanese Americans during World War II, and the Little Rock Central High School desegregation crisis of 1957.

Little Rock Nine Congressional Gold Medal Exhibit

Reflect on the courage of the Little Rock Nine, and see one of the actual Congressional Gold Medals that was presented to them during a special ceremony at the White House in 1999.

The Work Continues

When President Clinton left the White House in 2001, he knew he wanted to spend his life as a private citizen working in the areas he cared about most and where he could make a measurable difference. Visitors are encouraged to learn more about the ongoing work of the Clinton Foundation and how they can make a measurable difference in their communities.
Temporary Exhibits

As part of the Clinton Center’s mission, we present unique temporary exhibits with coordinating educational programs and events. Featuring a variety of historical and cultural topics, our temporary exhibits offer educators and students engaging learning experiences.

Washed Ashore: Art to Save the Sea
April 27-October 27, 2019

Washed Ashore: Art to Save the Sea is a family-friendly exhibit that features more than 20 giant sea life sculptures – made entirely of trash and debris collected from beaches. This exhibit poignantly illustrates the toll trash takes on our oceans and waterways.

The incredible marine life sculptures are accompanied by educational signage allowing visitors to learn about fascinating species, environmental stewardship, responsible consumer habits, and how “every action counts” to help save our waterways.

The Washed Ashore exhibit is primarily displayed inside two of the Clinton Center’s galleries. Visitors can see Eli the Eel, walk through the Reef at Risk, and play the Styrofoam Drum Set. The exhibit opened to the public April 27, and a second phase featuring additional sculptures opened in June. Priscilla the Parrot Fish, a 16-foot-long, 1,500-pound brightly-colored sculpture greets visitors from the water fountains located outside the front doors. Washed Ashore is sponsored by the Regional Recycling & Waste Reduction District, which promotes effective recycling to residential customers and encourages strategies to reduce waste.
... Like It’s 1999: American Pop Culture in the 1990s
November 23, 2019-May 17, 2020

“As if” anyone could forget the prosperous, golden, hopeful years of the 1990s! This fall, the Clinton Presidential Center is bringing back the decade that brought us blockbuster movies, must-see television shows, genre-changing music, iconic fashion, collectible toys, and the rise of PCs and the World Wide Web.

This exhibit will feature an exciting and diverse display – from props and scripts to fashion and tech – that, together, will tell the story of popular culture in the United States at the end of the 20th century. You won’t want to miss Rose’s dress and Jack’s drawing portfolio from Titanic, scripts from The West Wing, a Garth Brooks guitar, and, of course, a collection of Beanie Babies that were sent to the Clinton family during the White House years.

Throughout the exhibit, you’ll have the opportunity to play a variety of interactive games that focus on the era, including ‘90s trivia, Pogs, a giant crossword puzzle with ‘90s clues, and a ‘90s-style video game!

At the Clinton Center, we’ll “never let go” of the 1990s, and we invite you to join us in taking a trip down memory lane with ...Like It’s 1999: American Popular Culture in the 1990s!

Fusion: Arts + Humanities Arkansas
The Mighty Mississippi: The HeART and Soul of the Southern Delta
December 2019-March 2020

In 2020, we will continue exploring The Mighty Mississippi through our Fusion: Arts + Humanities Arkansas program.

The HeART and Soul of the Southern Delta will present art and culture from the last 120 years with roots in Arkansas, Mississippi, and Louisiana. The exhibit will feature music from the Southern Delta and a selection of visual art that embodies the varied cultural experiences of the Delta – daily life, work, play, poverty, sharecropping, faith, and more.
Pre-K-Second Grades

Permanent Exhibit Programs & Tours

NEW! Educators may add a classroom discussion and screening of the Clinton Center’s orientation film where President Clinton tells his life story in the context of the American experience during the 20th century. This will add an additional 20 minutes to your visit.

NEW! Mini-Presidential Tour
Guided Tour and Program

The Mini-Presidential Tour was designed specifically for our youngest student visitors. This hands-on tour encourages exploration and invites imagination. Students are welcomed by an engaging classroom activity in which they play a matching and identification game that helps define national symbols and the responsibilities of the President. On the tour, students will explore the Oval Office and Life in the White House exhibits and learn more about the symbols and duties explained in the classroom. This tour will last up to 60 minutes.

Holidays in the White House
Guided Tour and Program

Holidays like Christmas, Thanksgiving, St. Patrick’s Day, and Chanukah have long been celebrated at the White House each year. During the Clinton Administration, the White House also celebrated Ramadan for the first time. During this combined classroom program and tour, students will learn more about White House holiday traditions by viewing objects used during the celebrations – including hand-painted Easter eggs, a handcrafted menorah, and a crystal shamrock bowl. This program and tour will last up to 60 minutes.
Temporary Exhibit Tours

Washed Ashore: Art to Save the Sea
April 27-October 27, 2019

I Spy

Guided Tour

During this guided tour of Washed Ashore: Art to Save the Sea, students will search for everyday items they recognize in the sculptures and will discuss how they think these items ended up in the ocean. This activity will raise students’ awareness of how items they may use every day contribute to the larger issue of plastic pollution. This tour will last up to 45 minutes.

Ideas Matter
Self-Guided Tour

Ideas Matter is a self-guided tour that challenges young leaders to think about the ideas and qualities that have been important to President Clinton throughout his life. A custom-designed guidebook complements the tour and helps students learn about America’s achievements during President Clinton’s time in office. This tour will last up to 60 minutes.

NEW! Civic Literacy: The Crisis in Kosovo
Guided Tour and Program

As they assembled around the long table of the Cabinet Room, President Clinton, his Cabinet secretaries, and other government officials made tough choices about the nation’s future. We invite students to experience these high-level negotiations through a classroom experience that allows them to play the roles of foreign policy advisors who, among other things, planned and implemented military missions in Kosovo. The newly updated Civic Literacy Tour infuses contemporary history, photos, and speeches to commemorate 20 years since North Atlantic Treaty Organization secured the freedom of Kosovar Albanians – a plan spearheaded by President Clinton, Secretary of State Madeleine Albright, and retired Gen. Wesley K. Clark, former NATO Supreme Allied Commander, Europe. Following the classroom component, students will visit the Clinton Center’s permanent exhibits, including the Cabinet Room and selected Policy Alcoves. This program will last up to 60 minutes.

Hope, Endurance, and Justice
Guided Tour and Program

During this 60-minute experience, students will visit The Anne Frank Tree installation and examine four historical episodes – the Holocaust, the Indian Removal Act of 1830, the internment of Japanese Americans during World War II, and the Little Rock Central High School desegregation crisis of 1957 – which serve as poignant and painful reminders of the complicated journey toward social justice in Arkansas and around the world. Following the guided tour, students will participate in a moderated discussion of topical issues of the day, reflecting on the themes of hope, endurance, and justice.

Civics Capstone Project Fair – Get Informed, Get Inspired, and Get Going

April 2020
Great Hall

The Civics Capstone Project Fair encourages middle school students to get informed, get inspired, and take action, while gaining a deeper understanding of current civic issues presented to them by their peers. Each year, high school civics students in the Little Rock School District create their own civic engagement projects. Bring your middle school students to see how these high school students’ innovative civic engagements make the world a better place. Selected students from each of the five LRSD high schools will be on site to discuss their projects.
NEW! Educators may add a classroom discussion and screening of the Clinton Center’s orientation film where President Clinton tells his life story in the context of the American experience during the 20th century. This will add an additional 20 minutes to your visit.

NEW! Student Presidential Tour

Guided Tour

This signature tour inspires students to learn more about the life and legacy of the 42nd President of the United States by introducing them to the important issues and policies addressed by the Clinton Administration. While viewing the Policy Alcoves, there will be dedicated time to discuss the Confronting Conflicts, Making Peace alcove and examine how President Clinton and the United States mobilized its strength in the cause of peace and urged the global community to choose reconciliation over revenge. Students will have the opportunity to understand key decisions of the Clinton Administration while sitting at the Cabinet Room table, explore the Oval Office, understand the significance of a White House State Visit, and study the essential role and impact of First Lady Hillary Rodham Clinton. Best of Both Worlds

In partnership with Little Rock Central High School National Historic Site

Guided Tour

This partnership allows students to tour both the Clinton Center and the Little Rock Central High School National Historic Site to explore the impact of the Little Rock Nine and their long-standing relationship with President Clinton. At the Clinton Center, students will see and learn about the significance of one of the Congressional Gold Medals presented to the Little Rock Nine during a special ceremony at the White House in 1999. Students will also visit the Oval Office and Cabinet Room. At the Historic Site, students will tour the visitor's center and learn about the sacrifice and struggles of the nine Civil Rights pioneers who changed the course of history. This tour will last approximately 140 minutes. Students will spend 60 minutes at the Clinton Center and 60 minutes at the National Historic Site. An additional 20 minutes are included for travel.

NEW! Civic Literacy: The Crisis in Kosovo

Guided Tour and Program

The enhanced Civic Literacy program infuses contemporary history, photos, and speeches to commemorate 20 years since the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) secured the freedom of Kosovar Albanians – a plan spearheaded by President Clinton, Secretary of State Madeleine Albright, and retired Gen. Wesley K. Clark, former NATO Supreme Allied Commander, Europe. Students will take part in the National Issues Forum (NIF) deliberation format, which will guide them through the difficult decision-making process by closely weighing the advantages and disadvantages of three different strategies: diplomacy, military force, or isolation. After a public deliberation, students will compare their choices to the decision made by President Clinton on March 24, 1999. Students will also visit the Clinton Center's permanent exhibits, including the Cabinet Room and selected Policy Alcoves. More information about NIF is available at www.nifi.org. Contact Education Programs Manager Nate Thomas at nthomas@clintonfoundation.org to discuss how we can tailor this program for you. This program will last up to 160 minutes.

Hope, Endurance, and Justice

Guided Tour and Program

April 27-October 27, 2019

Pollution & Plastic

Guided Tour

Plastic pollution has developed into a worldwide problem, and each year the threat to ocean animals only increases. On this tour, students will engage in global conversations about the impact of plastic pollution and learn how national policies can make a difference. Additionally, students will take a closer look at the sculptures of Washed Ashore to uncover that art is more than the sum of its parts and leave inspired to take action to revitalize the oceans. This tour will last up to 60 minutes.

Waterways

In partnership with the Arkansas Game and Fish Commission

Guided Tour

This partnership, inspired by Washed Ashore: Art to Save the Sea, allows students to visit the sites of two organizations located in Little Rock. This experience will include a tour of Washed Ashore at the Clinton Center and a tour of the Arkansas Game and Fish Commission. Waterways is designed to be grade-level specific and will last up to 140 minutes. Students will spend 60 minutes at the Clinton Center and 60 minutes at the Arkansas Game and Fish Commission. Environmental Leadership Discussion with Dr. Mamie Parker

October 2, 2019 • 9:30-11:30 a.m.
Great Hall

We invite your students to hear from Dr. Parker, whose life is an example of how to turn an interest in biology and the environment into a career of public service. Dr. Parker has received many accolades, including the distinguished Presidential Rank Award, and created the first Arkansas Ecological Services Field Office in Conway. Born in Wilmot, Arkansas, her mission is “Helping Others Keep Growing and Going.” Bring your students so they too can learn how to be a part of the conservation effort.

Fall Service Day

October 4, 2019 • 9:30 a.m.-1:30 p.m.
In partnership with the City of Little Rock and City Year Little Rock
Great Hall

The second annual Fall Service Day is hosted in partnership with the City of Little Rock and City Year Little Rock. This year, we will feature state Rep. Jamie Scott, who has received numerous community awards for her public service. We also will host a panel of current and past alumni of City Year and AmeriCorps who will share the lasting impact public service has had on their lives.

The day will begin at the Clinton Center with an icebreaker that will encourage students to engage with their peers from other schools, followed by the panel discussion and a hosted lunch. After lunch, the students will participate in a service project sponsored by the City of Little Rock that will inspire them to find more ways to give back to their community.
NEW! Out Loud
October 11, 2019
In partnership with The Yarn
Great Hall

The Clinton Center is proud to partner with The Yarn, a unique storytelling organization, to celebrate National Coming Out Day!

There are two ways educators and their students can participate in this event. Do you have an LGBTQ student or ally who has a story to tell? Please encourage them to apply via www.clintonpresidentialcenter.org/education by September 18. Storytellers will be chosen by mid-September, and The Yarn will provide mentoring and speech coaching for all students selected.

Teachers are also encouraged to make reservations to bring their students on Friday, October 11, to listen to the powerful stories of their peers. For reservations, visit www.clintonpresidentialcenter.org/education.

The Yarn uses the power of story to amplify voices, build understanding, and create space for human connection.

The Young Entrepreneur
October 18, 2019 • 9:30-10:30 a.m. or 11 a.m.-noon
Great Hall

This workshop will motivate future business leaders of all types by introducing them to the basics of entrepreneurship and encouraging them to pursue their dreams. This year, the series will feature a panel of local business leaders and entrepreneurs who turned their passions into successful careers. More details to be announced!
Student Presidential Leadership Workshop

December 5, 2019

Great Hall

This interactive workshop will explore effective leadership in modern times by drawing on examples from past presidents and contemporary leaders, and it will challenge students to identify their core values. During the workshop, led by Dr. Mike Hemphill, Director of Academic Programming for the Clinton Foundation and Director of Presidential Leadership Studies, students will participate in a conversation with a community leader who will inspire them to make a difference in their schools and communities. We encourage educators, counselors, and administrators to identify student leaders, or those with leadership potential, to participate in the program to better develop their skills. Space is limited to the first 100 students.

Ideas Matter Essay Contest

Submission Deadline: February 1, 2020

The Clinton Foundation focuses on creating economic opportunity, improving public health, and inspiring civic engagement and service. Arkansas students in 11th and 12th grades are invited to write a 1,500-word (minimum) essay exploring one of these three focus areas. Students are asked to define a challenge, propose an idea to alleviate that challenge, and develop a strategy for putting that idea into action. The top three students will be recognized, and the student with the winning essay will be awarded a $2,500 college scholarship. The essay must be submitted by February 1, 2020. Send entries to Nate Thomas, Educational Programs Manager, Clinton Foundation, 1200 President Clinton Avenue, Little Rock, Arkansas, 72201, or submit it online at www.clintonpresidentialcenter.org/education.
Clinton Center Future Leaders Series

Workshop: November 1, 2019 • 6-9 p.m. & November 2-3, 2019 • 10 a.m.-4 p.m.
Planning Session: January 18, 2020
Student Forum: April 1, 2020 • 9:30 a.m.-noon
Great Hall

The Clinton Center Future Leaders Series will bring together a combined group of 30 high school students and educators who seek to make an impact on their communities.

Space is very limited, and applications are now open for students and educators.

The first session of the Future Leaders Series is an intensive two-day workshop in November, facilitated by Just Communities of Arkansas (JCA), that offers the opportunity to build meaningful relationships across identity lines, explore difficult issues that affect the lives of teens and educators in Arkansas, and learn new skills for navigating conflict. The students and educators will meet again January 18, 2020, to frame the topic for the second annual Student Forum on April 1, 2020. (See Page 22 for additional information about the Student Forum.)

Students and educators who are interested should visit www.clintonpresidentialcenter.org/education to learn more and apply. The deadline to apply for this opportunity is September 18, and selected participants will be notified by September 30.

About Just Communities of Arkansas:
Just Communities of Arkansas (JCA) aims to transform Arkansas into the nation’s most inclusive, equitable, and upwardly mobile place for all who live, work, or play here. With roots dating back over half a century, JCA builds capacity for systematic change so all people in Arkansas are treated like human beings and have the opportunity to reach their full potential.
Student Forum

April 1, 2020 • 9:30 a.m.-noon

Great Hall

Rooted in student-driven content, the second annual Student Forum will be planned and facilitated by students from the Future Leaders Series and will engage students in exploring an issue that matters to the next generation of leaders. Bring your class to participate in civic discussions, hear from subject matter experts, and demonstrate the power of dialogue. Students will leave knowing that their ideas matter and understanding the power of informed action to energize the next generation of thought leaders and engaged citizens. The issue to be explored will be announced in January 2020. Space is limited.

The Debate

Fall 2019 • 9:30-11 a.m.
Spring 2020 • 9:30-11 a.m.

Great Hall

“The Debate” challenges high school debate students to deliberate on topics while inviting a student audience to gain perspective on both sides of a headline issue. The debate will be held in the Great Hall of the Clinton Center and will encourage the student audience to remain engaged while providing questions for the debate teams via a live digital survey. Ultimately the student audience will determine the winner by measuring the change of audience opinion – through digital polling – before and after the debate.

Fall 2019 topics and dates to be announced soon.

Day of Action: Global Youth Service Day

April 17, 2020

In partnership with City Year Little Rock and the Arkansas Food Bank

Great Hall

Established in 1988, Global Youth Service Day (GYSD) is the largest service event in the world and the only day of service dedicated to children and youth. Every year, the Clinton Foundation celebrates GYSD with a special service-learning program and Day of Action service opportunity at the Arkansas Foodbank for Arkansas high school juniors and seniors. This Day of Action provides a platform where everyone can give back and inspire others to come together to make a difference. Last year, 220 students and community members volunteered to pack 26,370 pounds of produce, which provided meals for Arkansas families. Each school is limited to 20 student participants.

Annual Head of the Class Bash

August 4, 2019 • 1-5 p.m.
Jack T. Stephens Center, UA Little Rock

We kicked off the new school year at our Annual Head of the Class Bash. The first 3,000 students received free backpacks and back-to-school supplies. We also provided immunizations, physicals, dental screenings, vision screenings, and more to ensure students were ready for a successful start to the school year.

Read for the Record (Pre-K-Third Grades)

November 7, 2019 • 9:30-10:30 a.m., 10:30-11:30 a.m., & 11:30 a.m.-12:30 p.m.
In partnership with Too Small To Fail
Great Hall

This fall, the Clinton Center will participate in the 14th annual national “Read for the Record” campaign, which highlights the importance of building early literacy and language skills for every child. Join us as local celebrities and community leaders read Thank You, Omu! by Oge Moral. Thank You, Omu! tells the story of a generous elderly woman who makes a fantastic pot of thick red stew. The scent from her stew travels all throughout her neighborhood and brings her community members over to her home for a taste. By the end, she shares a lovely feast with her neighbors where everyone contributes to the meal. Each student who participates will receive a copy of Thank You, Omu!, available in both English and Spanish.

Too Small to Fail, an initiative of the Clinton Foundation, is leading a public awareness and action campaign to promote the importance of early brain and language development and to empower parents with tools to talk, read, and sing with their young children. For more information about Too Small to Fail, visit www.toosmall.org.
Hold These Truths (Sixth-Twelfth Grades)

November 15, 2019 • 9:30-11:30 a.m.

Great Hall

Hold These Truths is a single-performer play that explores the horrors of Japanese internment. The play is particularly impactful as it shows its main character — from the time he was a boy memorizing the Constitution and the Declaration of Independence to the time he is an old man — refusing to give up “life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness.”

The “playwright Jeanne Sakata uses the true story of Gordon Hirabayashi to illuminate one of the most heinous stories in America’s history. In 1941, driven by anger, fear, and desire for revenge for Pearl Harbor, the American government rounded up over 120,000 American citizens of Japanese descent and held them in detention camps.”

Black History Month (Third-Eighth Grades)

School Programs: February 14, 2020 • 9:30-10:30 a.m. or 11 a.m.-noon

Family Program: February 16, 2020 • 3-4 p.m.

In partnership with Parkview Arts and Science Magnet High School

Great Hall

We will celebrate Black History Month with a series of historically-rooted performances by Parkview High School drama, choir, and orchestra students. The program will be inspired by the Clinton Center’s temporary exhibit ... Like It’s 1999. More details to be announced.
Empowering Girls and Women (Sixth-Twelfth Grades)

March 2020

In partnership with #ARGirlsLead

Great Hall

Join us for a special Women’s History Month program in partnership with #ARGirlsLead, a bipartisan movement started by women of the Arkansas House of Representatives 91st General Assembly. Representatives from the movement will share their personal stories to promote positive self-image and leadership for young girls across the state.
Curbside Couture (Third-Twelfth Grades)

Mentoring Session: March 2020
Fashion Show: April 2020
Great Hall

Curbside Couture encourages students to turn trash into treasure. Arkansas’s largest “green” fashion show, Curbside Couture offers students in third-twelfth grades the opportunity to apply their creativity and technical skills to create wearable designs made of recycled material. The fashion show is the product of months of hard work by student designers and guidance from educators and mentors. Participants will attend a mentoring session with acclaimed designers, including Korto Momolu, first runner-up in Project Runway’s fifth season, and the Clinton Center’s own Connie Fails. Winning designs are chosen by a panel of jurors, and winning designers are awarded a cash prize. Registration is open now through January 31 at www.clintonpresidentialcenter.org/curbside. For more information about the event, please contact Connie Fails at (501) 748-0405 or cfails@clintonfoundation.org.
Culinary Camp

Date: TBA

Great Hall

The culinary and Educational Programs staff of the Clinton Center lead this unique week-long summer day camp. Over the progression of four years, student chefs learn proper culinary techniques, discuss nutritional information, visit local farms, and much more. Students participate in exciting food challenges throughout the week and conclude by preparing and executing a special reception to reveal their new culinary skills to family members and guests. At the graduation ceremony, they will also earn essential culinary supplies that they can use at home. Camp fees are $350 for Clinton Presidential Center members and $400 for non-members. Space is limited. Please monitor www.clintonpresidentialcenter.org/culinarycamp for updates and registration.
Educator Workshops

Arkansas Education Association Rozzell Lecture

October 31, 2019 • Time TBA

Great Hall

The Clinton Foundation will partner with the Arkansas Education Association for the annual Rozzell Lecture, featuring a prominent leader in the field of education on the opening night of the annual AEA Professional Development Conference. Additionally, the Clinton Foundation staff will highlight its upcoming educational programs, and educators are invited to tour our permanent exhibits for the duration of the conference.

Dr. Mamie Parker Educator Workshop

October 2, 2019

Great Hall

We invite educators to hear from Arkansas's own Dr. Mamie Parker. A native of Wilmot, Arkansas, Dr. Parker is a former senior executive with the U.S. Fisheries and Wildlife Service who created the first Arkansas Ecological Services Field Office in Conway.

Dr. Parker is on a mission to strengthen students' connection to wildlife, the environment, oceans, and watersheds. Her workshop will provide present-day educational strategies to demonstrate the impact of climate change on students' daily lives. Come hear how you can not only expand your classroom curriculum, but how to inspire civic engagement and innovative pathways to a career in conservation.
Clinton Center Future Leaders Series

Workshop November 1, 2019 • 6-9 p.m. & November 2-3, 2019 • 10 a.m.-4 p.m.
Planning Session: January 18, 2020
Student Forum: April 1, 2020 • 9:30 a.m.-noon

Great Hall

The Clinton Center Future Leaders Series will bring together a combined group of 30 high school students and educators who seek to make an impact on their communities. The educators, while learning alongside students, will receive 12 credit hours of professional development.

Space is very limited, and applications are now open for students and educators.

The first session of the Future Leaders Series is an intensive two-day workshop in November, facilitated by Just Communities of Arkansas (JCA), that offers the opportunity to build meaningful relationships across identity lines, explore difficult

Fusion: Arts + Humanities Arkansas

The Mighty Mississippi: The HeART and Soul of the Southern Delta

Educator Institute: March 15-16, 2020  •  Time TBA

The annual Fusion: Arts and Humanities Arkansas educator institute enriches the teaching of our heritage, culture, and human achievement by weaving the arts and humanities together to provide a unique interactive experience. This year the topic is The Mighty Mississippi: The HeART and Soul of the Southern Delta. Educators will have the opportunity to engage with content-area experts, such as Dr. William (Bill) Ferris, who is a nationally acclaimed scholar, writer, and film producer specializing in Delta and Southern culture and a recent Grammy award winner; view a custom exhibition; and observe performances that will bring a new perspective of the history of the Mississippi River to the classroom. Space is limited, and applications are now open at www.clintonpresidentialcenter.org/fusion.
