Welcome to the Clinton Presidential Center. When we opened our doors almost a decade ago, my greatest hope for the Center was - and still is - to engage and inspire students to build a better future for themselves, their communities, and our increasingly interdependent world.

We dedicated the Center on November 18, 2004 - a dramatic and memorable rainy day in Little Rock. I was joined on stage by President George W. Bush, President George H.W. Bush, and President Jimmy Carter, as well as nearly 30,000 people from around the world who celebrated with us in the downpour. It’s hard to imagine that some of the ninth-grade students who performed during the Dedication Ceremony with the Hot Springs High School Band have already graduated from college.

To date, the Center has welcomed more than three million visitors from every corner of the globe and from every walk of life. Often, I take the opportunity to meet some of them. Without fail, I run across students and educators who have traveled here - some from great distances - to explore the venue and experience the tours, activities, and programs that we offer. And every time I visit with them, I am filled with confidence that the Center continues to realize my vision - to serve as a place where students can study the issues of today so we can meet the challenges of tomorrow.

As we celebrate our 10-year anniversary this fall in Little Rock, I hope that you and your students will participate in our Foundation-wide effort to commemorate this milestone by taking positive action. The Extra10 campaign is our community-building effort that challenges individuals to become agents of change. By pledges at an Extra10 - reading to a child for 10 minutes a day, volunteering 10 hours at a local food bank, walking 10 extra minutes a day - we are enriching our communities through individual responsibility. And students need to know that they, too, can make a difference.

As we look forward to November and embarking on our next ten years and beyond, we will continue to make education one of our top priorities. I hope you will consider the Clinton Presidential Center an extension of your classroom or your campus. Our staff stands ready to help you and your students succeed.

Chihuly

May 17, 2014 - January 5, 2015

The Clinton Center presents the artwork of American artist Dale Chihuly. Born in Tacoma, Washington, in 1941, Chihuly is credited with revolutionizing the Studio Glass Movement. He is renowned for his ambitious installations in historic cities, museums, and gardens around the world. Chihuly is a rare and engaging visual experience for visitors of all ages.

Art & Poetry (Pre-K - Second Grades)

Students are encouraged to express their own creativity through an interactive art and poetry workshop. Students will see Chihuly’s creative works, participate in a Chihuly-inspired coloring activity, and experience the art of poetry by writing a “color” poem. Students will have the opportunity to share their art and poetry with the class.

Chihuly Art (Third - Fifth Grades)

Dale Chihuly is a master of his craft and an inspiration to other artists across many genres. Students will be captivated by the precision, detail, and creativity of his work and will have the rare opportunity to see his sculptures up close. Additionally, students will learn more about Chihuly, the artist, and his techniques through a multimedia presentation. This presentation includes an interactive discussion that showcases the tools used for glassblowing, and offers the opportunity to handle real Chihuly glass and create a Chihuly-inspired weaving activity.

The Science of Glassblowing (Sixth - Eighth Grades)

Although glassblowing was invented by the Phoenicians around 50 B.C., the Romans perfected the craft and spread this newly discovered technique throughout the Roman Empire. Students will learn more about the history and the evolution of this art, watch a Chihuly video, analyze the special scientific characteristics of glass, and discover how modern artists, like Dale Chihuly, continue to perfect and expand the craft.

Art in Urban Renewal (Ninth - Twelfth Grades)

“Chihuly has increasingly challenged preconceived notions of how and where art can be exhibited. Long a veteran of exhibiting in the ‘white box of the museum world,’ he has increasingly sought opportunities to take his work outside, into the realm of public art spaces, and out into the landscape.”* Through this program, students will be introduced to the power of public art and its ability to catalyze urban revitalization and renewal. Additionally, students will be engaged in discussing and forming opinions about the benefits of community art installations.

“Pigskin Peanuts” & “Heartbreak in Peanuts”
January 17 – April 5, 2015

In honor of the 65th Anniversary of Charles Schulz’s Peanuts, we will be hosting two new exhibitions that will premiere at the Clinton Center from the Charles M. Schulz Museum and Research Center in Santa Rosa, California. “Pigskin Peanuts” will feature Schulz’s football-themed Peanuts comic strips and his “Fall Classic,” in which Lucy pulls the ball away from Charlie Brown just as he runs up to kick it. It will also highlight how Charles Schulz often explored the theme of fairness in his comic strip and believed in giving everyone equal opportunity. “Heartbreak in Peanuts” underscores the prevalence of love in the comic strip. Students will experience the joys and sorrows of unrequited love Peanuts-style. Both exhibitions will feature reproductions of Charles Schulz’s original Peanuts strips, student activities within the exhibition, 5-foot sculptures of Charlie Brown and Snoopy, and themed objects and ephemera.

Organized by the Charles M. Schulz Museum, Santa Rosa, California

Educational programming to be announced.

“Dinosaurs Around the World”
April 25 – October 18, 2015

The “Dinosaurs Around the World” exhibition features 9 state-of-the-art, full-sized, moving, roaring, animatronic dinosaurs. Students will learn about dinosaur behaviors such as hunting, feeding upon various plants, and fighting. Recent paleontological research has documented the remains of these remarkable animals on all seven continents including Antarctica and Australia.

“Dinosaurs Around the World” takes students on a globetrotting expedition around the world, dropping in to see the variety of dinosaurs living on various continents during the Age of Reptiles.

Educational programming, in partnership with the Museum of Discovery, to be announced.

Permanent Tours & Programs

School Group Tour Information:
• Each tour group is admitted free with a reservation.
• School personnel (teachers, staff, aides, bus drivers) are admitted free of charge.

Best of Both Worlds (Third - Twelfth Grades)

_The Clinton Foundation and the Heifer International Partnership_

This partnership allows students of all grades to tour the sites of two world-class international nonprofit organizations located in Little Rock. This visit will include tours of the Clinton Center and Heifer Village – two buildings that have attained LEED Platinum Certification. The tours are designed to be grade-level specific and will last up to two-and-a-half hours.

Little Rock Nine and the Congressional Gold Medal Tour (Ninth - Twelfth Grades)

_The Clinton Foundation and the Little Rock Central High School National Historic Site Partnership_

This partnership allows students to tour both historic sites to explore the significance of the Little Rock Nine, the impact their actions had on America, and the inspiration they provided to President Clinton during his formative years and beyond. A special highlight of the tour at the Clinton Center includes viewing a Congressional Gold Medal belonging to one of the Little Rock Nine. This tour, including both locations, will last approximately three hours.

Mini-Presidential Tour (Pre-K - Second Grades)

The Mini-Presidential Tour is docent-led and includes tours of the Oval Office, the _Life in the White House_ exhibit, and the current temporary exhibit. This tour is grade-level specific and lasts 45 minutes.

The Student Presidential Tour (Third - Twelfth Grades)

The Student Presidential Tour is docent-led and includes the Center’s orientation film, a tour of its Oval Office, Cabinet Room, _Life in the White House_, and the current temporary exhibit. This tour is designed to be grade-level specific and lasts an hour and 15 minutes.

Ideas Matter (Fourth - Eighth Grades)

Ideas Matter is a docent-led tour that challenges young leaders to think about the ideas and qualities that have been important to President Clinton throughout his life. A custom-designed guidebook complements the tour and helps students learn about America’s achievements during President Clinton’s time in office. This tour will last an hour and 15 minutes.

Civic Literacy

This program combines a 30-minute, age-appropriate classroom activity and a 30-minute tour, which will include portions of both the permanent and temporary exhibits. For teachers who want a more in-depth experience, we also offer an hour-long classroom activity and an hour-long tour.

Civic Literacy: The Clinton Administration
(Sixth – Eighth Grades and Ninth – Twelfth Grades)

As they assembled around the long table of the Cabinet Room, President Clinton, his cabinet secretaries, and other government officials made tough choices about the nation’s future. We invite students to experience these high-level negotiations through a classroom activity that allows students to play the role of senior officials who, among other things, developed economic strategies, planned military missions in Kosovo, and reformed welfare laws. This Civic Literacy Tour will utilize the Center’s permanent exhibits, including the Cabinet Room, its interactive stations, and the Policy Alcoves, to illustrate key milestones of the Clinton Administration.

Object-Based Learning Programs

Object-based learning programs create an educational atmosphere in which objects become central to the lesson. These programs are designed for students in pre-K through second grade. Special objects and artifacts will be available for the students to touch and hold, providing multiple ways to connect their thoughts with the subject matter. Each program includes classroom activities, a tour of the exhibits, and will last an hour and 15 minutes.

Coin Collecting and Campaign Buttons

September - November 2014

President Clinton’s collections are comprised of an impressive number of military coins and campaign buttons. Students will view and touch replicas of military challenge coins and authentic campaign buttons from the 1992 and 1996 presidential campaigns. Following the classroom activity, students will tour the exhibit and find the military challenge coins and campaign buttons on display. The docent-led tour also includes the Oval Office, Life in the White House, and the current temporary exhibit.

Holidays at the White House

December 2014 - February 2015

Each year, the White House hosts many events that celebrate our nation’s diversity. Students will learn more about these holiday traditions by viewing and holding the types of objects that are used during these celebrations. Following the classroom activity, the students will find similar artifacts in the permanent exhibit, Life in the White House. The docent-led tour also includes the Oval Office and the current temporary exhibit.

National Symbols

March - May 2015

Why is the bald eagle a national symbol of this great nation? Why are there 50 stars on the U.S. flag? Bring your students to the Clinton Center to learn the answers to these questions and much more. Students will be introduced to national symbols through a hands-on classroom activity. They will find national symbols – the bald eagle, the American flag, the Presidential Seal, the Statue of Liberty, and the White House – while exploring the permanent exhibit. The docent-led tour also includes the Oval Office, Life in the White House, and the current temporary exhibit.

Bill, Hillary & Chelsea Clinton Foundation Programs

Extra 10 Campaign
Every day, from Miami to Malawi, the Clinton Foundation works with our friends and partners to transform lives and communities from what they are to what they can be. We believe that, by working together, we can tackle the biggest issues facing our world today.

Why do we believe this? We see it every day in the communities we work in around the world. 2014 is a special year for us at the Clinton Foundation. This fall, the Clinton Presidential Center will celebrate 10 years since opening its doors, and we are taking this opportunity to ask you: What’s your Extra10?

The Extra 10 campaign is the Center’s community-building effort that challenges individuals to become agents of change. By pledging an Extra 10—volunteering 10 hours cleaning a local park, donating 10 healthy food items to your local pantry, volunteering 10 hours at a local animal shelter, etc.—we are enriching our communities through taking individual responsibility.

Every student who visits the Center this fall will be encouraged to make an Extra 10 Pledge. Students may make a pledge online and upload a photo or video of their pledge in action, or they may mail a 3" x 5" postcard that includes their name, address, email address (if applicable) and their pledge to: Extra 10, 1200 President Clinton Avenue, Little Rock, Arkansas 72201. One lucky Extra 10 pledge-maker will receive a prize at the end of the semester through a random drawing.

Clinton Foundation’s Ideas Matter Essay Contest

Postmark Deadline: November 3, 2014
Arkansas students in eleventh and twelfth grades are invited to write a 500-word (minimum) essay on the prompt: “In today’s interdependent world, we have many challenges. The Clinton Foundation works to change the world by (1) improving global health, (2) increasing opportunities for women and girls, (3) reducing childhood obesity and preventable diseases, (4) creating economic opportunity and growth, and (5) helping communities address the effects of climate change. Choose and define one of these areas and propose your own idea for putting it into action.”

The student with the winning essay will be awarded a $2,500 college scholarship. The essay must be postmarked by November 3, 2014. Send entries to Joyce Willis, Educational Programs Manager, Clinton Foundation, 1200 President Clinton Avenue, Little Rock, Arkansas 72201.

Empowering Women and Girls: Amplify Your Voice

March 31, 2015
This program is inspired by the Clinton Foundation initiative “No Ceilings: The Full Participation Project.” No Ceilings is an effort to chart the path forward to accelerate full participation for women and girls in the 21st century. This moderated discussion will share the findings of the No Ceilings Progress Report, which will present the progress made during the last 20 years and the challenges that remain for women and girls throughout the world.

Building Community

February 2, 9, 23 & March 9, 2015

The Clinton Foundation, in partnership with Just Communities of Arkansas (JCA), presents a series of workshops inspired by a selection of the Center’s permanent alcove exhibits that focus on the work of President Clinton and First Lady Hillary Rodham Clinton to make the world a better place at home and abroad. Most importantly, these workshops will encourage students to take an active role in building communities.

Community Building (Sixth - Eighth Grades)
This grade-level specific workshop stresses the power of community building and an understanding that our differences can strengthen us as a nation. President Clinton says, “…in genetic terms, all human beings, regardless of race, are more than 99.9 percent the same.” This program promotes inclusion, challenges assumptions, advances understanding, and works to create a community where every person is valued and everyone has a fair chance to succeed.

Leadership (Ninth - Twelfth Grades)
President Bill Clinton and Secretary Hillary Rodham Clinton are devoted public servants who have worked, for decades, to find solutions that transform lives and communities. President Clinton led the United States to the longest economic expansion in American history, including the creation of more than 22 million jobs. Also during his tenure, the welfare system was reformed, environmental regulations were strengthened, and a massive federal budget deficit was turned into a surplus. As First Lady, Hillary Clinton advocated for healthcare reform and led successful bipartisan efforts to improve adoption and the foster care system, reduce teen pregnancy, establish Early Head Start and provide health care to millions of children through the Children’s Health Insurance Program. She also traveled to more than 80 countries as a representative of our country, winning respect as a champion of human rights, democracy, civil society, and opportunities for women and girls around the world. This workshop is designed to encourage students to think critically about the qualities that make an effective leader and how they can apply these qualities to their lives and to building better communities.

Workshops for Students

Chihuly Studio | The Art of Glass (Ninth – Twelfth Grades)

October 16, 2014 • 9:30 a.m. – 10:30 a.m., 11:00 a.m. – Noon

This unparalleled occasion brings Britt Cornett, Head of Exhibitions from the Chihuly Studio, to share the vision of Dale Chihuly. She will share her experiences with traveling exhibitions around the world, in historic cities, museums and gardens. As Head of Exhibitions, Britt is in charge of all public displays of Chihuly artwork. Students will immerse themselves in the creative process of translating imagination and words into tangible art, and learn more about the unique techniques utilized by Chihuly.

Chihuly Studio | The Science of Glass (Ninth – Twelfth Grades)

October 20, 2014 • 9:30 a.m. – 10:30 a.m., 11:00 a.m. – Noon

High school students of all disciplines will be amazed by The Science of Glass, a workshop that reveals the entertaining and unique characteristics of glass. This STEM-oriented workshop will address many questions, including how is glass made; whether all glass is the same; and how gravity and other natural forces affect glassblowing. The workshop will be led by Janet Lennon, publicist at Chihuly Studios.

Chihuly Studio | Photographing Art (Ninth – Twelfth Grades)

October 21, 2014 • 9:30 a.m. – 10:30 a.m., 11:00 a.m. – Noon

Students of photography and art studies will experience “...photography that is done as a fine art – that is, done to express the artist’s perceptions and emotions and to share them with others,” says Gloria S. McDarrah*. The installations Mille Fiori; Sea Forms; and the Red Reeds that grace the entrance of the Clinton Center, are all inspired by Chihuly expansive imagination. Students will learn the many ways to photograph art through the lens of perception as they explore and capture images of Chihuly’s work and then regroup to acknowledge the ways that art is truly a multidimensional media. The workshop will be led by Janet Lennon, publicist at Chihuly Studios.

The Young Entrepreneur (Ninth – Twelfth Grades)

November 5, 2014 • 9:30 a.m. – 10:30 a.m. & 11:00 a.m. – Noon

Chihuly is an immersive and incomparable visual presentation of color, shape, and form. Inspired by Dale Chihuly, The Young Entrepreneur will host an engaging and informative discussion with a successful local art entrepreneur and renowned Arkansas native glass artist, James Hayes, and other local art entrepreneurs who have turned their passions from ideas into careers. This is intended to motivate future entrepreneurs of all types by introducing them to the basics of entrepreneurship and marketing, stimulating them to pursue their dreams. More details to be announced.

Civic Literacy | Kosovo | Student Workshop (Ninth – Twelfth Grades)

Date and Time to be announced

This workshop will be one of the most enriching opportunities for your high school students to engage in civic literacy this school year. Students will utilize the Clinton Center’s Cabinet Room exhibit and other hands-on resources to best understand the civic responsibility of our government and citizens. Most importantly, our special speaker will be a Clinton Administration expert who will provide an engaging conversation about the negotiations surrounding Kosovo.

Professional Development Workshops for Educators

Arkansas Curriculum and Arkansas Education Association Conferences
Chihuly Studio | The Art of Glass

November 6, 2014 • 6 - 8 p.m.

In partnership with the Arkansas Curriculum Conference (ACC) and the Arkansas Education Association (AEA), the Clinton Foundation will host a special lecture. Educators will be invited to attend and earn credit/hours that apply toward their annual professional development goals. In partnership with the Chihuly Studio, Britt Cornett, Head of Exhibitions, will be the featured speaker. She will present cross-curricular applications of the art and science of glass. This is a rare chance to learn how to integrate the vision of Dale Chihuly into your curriculum. Following the workshop, educators will be invited to participate in a guided tour of this exhibit. Refreshments will be served.

Civic Literacy | Kosovo | Teacher Workshop

Date and Time to be Announced

The Clinton Center is a special place for your students to be immersed in presidential history. This workshop, which highlights the Kosovo military negotiations, will show you how to best utilize the Clinton Center’s Cabinet Room exhibit and other hands-on resources as extensions of your classroom. Our speaker will be a Clinton Administration expert who will provide firsthand knowledge on the negotiations surrounding Kosovo. Bring your curriculum to life by connecting civic literacy and the Common Core Standards.

Stay tuned for a complete 2015 Spring Workshop Schedule coming soon!

Special Events

Annual Head of the Class Bash
August 16, 2014 • 9 a.m. - 2 p.m. • Clinton Center and Park

In honor of the new school year, the Clinton Foundation, in partnership with the Office of Governor Mike Beebe, is hosting a Head of the Class Bash. Families and students will engage with community resources to enrich their educational opportunities during the school year, and receive free backpacks and back-to-school supplies. Visitors will celebrate and prepare for the new school year with free activities, free giveaways, and free services, including online ACT SAT/PSAT Prep Materials from Kaplan. In addition, all visitors may enjoy free admission to the Clinton Center in honor of President Clinton’s birthday and can make an Extra10 Commitment in honor of the 10th Anniversary of the Clinton Presidential Center.

History Day Student Showcase
October 25, 2014 • 9:30 a.m. - 3 p.m. • Great Hall

Students who placed in the top three of the State History Day Competition at the University of Central Arkansas last spring have been invited to share their winning projects with Clinton Center visitors. The History Day Student Showcase allows guests of all ages to learn more about the people, ideas, and events that have shaped our nation’s history. Workshops related to specific project categories will also be available for participating students.

“Heartbreak in Peanuts” Family Programming
February 7th & 14th, 2015 • Great Hall

Join us at the Clinton Presidential Center on Saturday, February 7th and 14th, for Valentine’s Day family programming featuring Charles M. Schulz’s new exhibit “Heartbreak in Peanuts.” These special Saturday events will give you and your children the chance to create Peanuts-themed valentines for your family and community. Guests will have the opportunity to learn about the life and work of Charles M. Schulz, and how he created the stories of Snoopy, Charlie Brown, and Lucy that we all know and love.

Dr. Seuss’s Week-long Birthday Party (Pre-K - Third Grades)
March 2 - 6, 2015 • Great Hall

Get students excited about reading by celebrating Dr. Seuss’s birthday at the Clinton Center! Local celebrities will read from their favorite books and share the joy of reading with elementary students in pre-K through third grades. Students will be treated to a special theatrical performance, receive a book from the Dr. Seuss collection, and enjoy birthday cupcakes. Along with our love for all things “Seuss,” we will also read books featuring the work of Charles M. Schulz and his beloved Peanuts characters for students to enjoy alongside the “Heartbreak in Peanuts” and “Pigskin Peanuts” exhibits on display. Make your reservations now! Limited space is available.

Spring Break Activity: Instrumental Petting Zoo
March 23 - 27, 2015 • 10 a.m. - 2 p.m.

Back by popular demand! In partnership with the Arkansas Symphony Orchestra (ASO), the Clinton Foundation will host the third Instrumental Petting Zoo. Students can touch and play string, woodwind, and brass instruments; meet the musicians; hear special demonstrative performances by ASO members; and enter to win a musical prize. Spring break activities are free; however, admission fees to tour the Center still apply.

Future Business Leaders of America (FBLA) Student Workshop
April 13, 2015 • Great Hall

The mission of Future Business Leaders of America is to bring business and education together in a positive working relationship through innovative leadership and career development programs. In partnership with FBLA, the Clinton Foundation will host a workshop in the Great Hall to engage FBLA students in “Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics (STEM): Green Building Initiative.” More details to be announced.

Global Youth Service Day (Ninth - Twelfth Grades)
April 17, 2015 • 8:30 a.m. - 3 p.m. • Great Hall

Established in 1988, Global Youth Service Day (GYSD) is the largest service event in the world and the only day of service dedicated to children and youth. The Clinton Foundation, in partnership with City Year Little Rock, will host GYSD 2015, a service-learning conference. More than 200 local high school students will participate in sessions centered around service to others, as well as engage in an off-site service project.

Arkansas High School Jazz Festival
April 24 - 25, 2015 • Clinton Center and Park

In celebration of Jazz Appreciation Month, this free festival enables students to enjoy and learn more about jazz, a truly American art form. In partnership with the Arkansas Jazz Educators, the Arkansas High School Jazz Festival will feature performances by top-ranking high school jazz bands from around the state and will feature a headlining jazz artist. The public is invited to attend the performances. More details to be announced.

Curbside Couture
*Mentoring Session: March 14, 2015
Fashion Show: April 12, 2015*

Students will have the opportunity to showcase and sell their own creations at “Curbside Couture,” a "green" fashion show hosted by the Clinton Foundation that encourages students to create designs from recycled material. The three categories of designs include the following: accessories, single ready-to-wear items, and total designs—all of which must be creatively redesigned or recycled. Teachers of art and other subjects are encouraged to initiate, invite, and work with their students who wish to participate.

To support students during their creative process, we will provide a mentoring session with acclaimed fashion designers, including Korto Momolu, a “Project Runway” first runner-up, to give feedback and offer ideas to improve their designs. Selected designs will be highlighted in the fashion show and the top student designers will win cash prizes.

The deadline to register is February 16, 2015, and the deadline for design submissions is April 1, 2015. To register, please visit www.clintonpresidentialcenter.org.

For questions and more information on all the requirements, please contact Connie Fails at 501-748-0405 or 501-258-1127 or cfails@clintonfoundation.org.

Bridge to the Future

May 2, 2015 • 10 a.m. – 2 p.m. • Clinton Center and Park

Bridge to the Future will bring together organizations that support the missions of early learning, health, and nutrition while they provide enjoyable, interactive educational activities for children and parents. The festival will kick off with a walk from the Clinton Presidential Park Bridge by HIPPY Arkansas participants. From there, visitors can venture into several “villages” with the following themes: Education, Food and Nutrition, Health and Fitness, Gardening, Safety, and Activity. Each Village will feature interactive educational activities, as well as healthy snacks.

Celebrating Cultures

May 22, 2015 • 9:30 a.m. – 2 p.m. • Clinton Center and Park

Close out the school year with an international festival of activities sponsored by the Clinton Foundation and Riverfest. Held on the grounds of the Clinton Center, “Celebrating Cultures” gives students a moment to enjoy music, cultural performances, arts, crafts, and foods from around the world. Teachers will register and each class will represent a culture, country, or cuisine of their choice. This activity is designed to be grade-specific. More details to be announced.

Central Arkansas Library System (CALS) Partnership

Arkansas Literary Festival

April 24, 2015

The Arkansas Literary Festival is the premier gathering of readers and writers in Arkansas. The Clinton Foundation, in partnership with CALS, will bring a noted children’s book author to present two programs at the Center and one program at the Hillary Rodham Clinton Children’s Library and Learning Center. More details to be announced.

CALS at the Clinton Center - Fifth-Grade Partnership

August 2014 - May 2015

Through a transportation grant funded by both the Central Arkansas Library System and the Clinton Foundation, fifth-grade classes from the Little Rock and Pulaski County Special School Districts will be able to travel to and from the main branch of the Central Arkansas Library System and the Clinton Center. The students will tour the main library, receive a library card, and learn about resources available through CALS. Afterward, students will visit the Center and participate in the Ideas Matter Tour. To schedule, please contact CALS at 501.918.3000.

To book your FREE SCHOOL TOUR, please call the Clinton Center Volunteer & Visitor Services office at 501.748.0419 or visit: http://bit.ly/PlanYourSchoolTour

Year 2 July 11 - 17, 2015
Year 1 July 20 - 24, 2015
Year 1 July 27 - 31, 2015

Michael Selig, along with the culinary staff at the Clinton Center, will lead this exciting and educational week-long day camp. Topics for discussion will include: organic foods vs. non-organic foods, food labels and how to read them, and good carbs vs. bad carbs. To wrap up the camp experience, campers will host a special reception for family members and guests to reveal their new culinary skills.

$225 for Clinton Center Members • $250 for non-members
For more information on a Clinton Center membership, please contact Lena Moore at 501-370-8000.

Cost includes camp fees, snacks, lunches, and materials needed for the class. First-year students will earn their chef jackets and culinary tools at graduation. Second-, third-, and fourth-year students will earn culinary tool sets at graduation. Space is limited. To register, please contact Mindy Hammond at 501-748-0454 or visit www.clintonpresidentialcenter.org.

*Seventh – Eighth Grades.  Fourth – Sixth Grades

Clinton Center Student Chef Series

Dates and times to be announced.

The series will be comprised of distinguished chefs, dieticians, and urban farming experts. Topics for discussion will include organic foods vs. non-organic foods; food labels and how to read them; and good carbs vs. bad carbs. On-site culinary demonstrations will involve tips for making healthy snacks, knife skills, and the art of sautéing. To bring this program to your school, please contact Mindy Hammond at 501-748-0454 or visit www.clintonpresidentialcenter.org.
